SECTION 5: ACCEPTANCE

Successful applicants to New Image will be contacted and advised of registration dates and the deadline for payment of tuition fees. Students who do not respond by the deadline may lose their opportunity to register for the dates of their choice; as a result they will be placed on a wait list for the next available date. Acceptance is valid only for the year after application submission. If the applicant wishes to register for the same program in the future, they will have to resubmit their application. Rejected applicants will be advised immediately and will receive an explanatory letter informing the reason for rejection. Being rejected once from any of the programs will not mean applicants cannot try applying again for the next starting date available.

SECTION 6: RELEASE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The personal information on this form consisting of the student name, date of birth, gender, and postal code of the last known permanent address may be used to verify or assign a British Columbia Personal Education Number (PEN) to students. The main use of the PEN is to measure participation of the population in the post-secondary sector and for program research or evaluation.

Other uses of personal information may include purposes of identification, statistical reporting, investigating student complaints, determining tuition refund entitlements, measuring program performance, or other requirements.

For research purposes, any information disclosed will be in a non-identifiable form.

In accordance with Part 4(10)(1)(a) of the Personal Information Protection Act, we hereby notify you that your name and personal identification information, the name of your program of study, and the amount of the tuition paid will be forwarded to the Private Career Training Institutions Agency for the purpose of administering the Student Training Completion Fund. This information is collected by the PCTIA under section 26 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

We also advise you that upon completion of your program of study or other termination from the program, your academic record consisting of your copies of transcript and diploma if issued, and this contract, will be stored for the purpose of maintaining an academic record archive on an electronic system as per the requirements of the PCTIA Bylaws.

SECTION 7: ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

New Image does not guarantee that you, as applicant, will be selected. New Image only guarantees to provide you, the applicant, with an equal opportunity to be accepted into our programs. Please note the requirements below, which may or may not be required to accompany your application:

» Applicants must complete the online or paper program application form and submit for acceptance.

» Pay the non-refundable application assessment fee.

» Submit an application assessment essay (500 words) about you and your dream of becoming a professional make-up artist, spa technician or an actor. Please note that this essay will be an essential factor when assessing your application for acceptance into the program.

» For diploma programs, applicants must have a valid high school diploma or be at least 19 years of age or older. If students are currently enrolled in high school, transcripts for the last term will be required. (Attach file if required, for applicants younger than 19 years of age.)

» For certificate programs, applicants must display a high level of interest in the area of study, and those under the age of 19 must have parental consent. Upon acceptance, a parent or legal guardian must co-sign the registration as consent.

» Have a detailed financial plan to cover tuition expenses. Choose from a variety of tuition payment options provided by New Image, or, if using a different payment plan, you must submit a letter detailing your personal financial plan for approval.

» Meet the specific program requirements.

» Meet English language requirements.

» Wait for your application to be assessed.

» Upon application acceptance, applicant must meet with a New Image educational advisor, in person or online, fill out a final New Image registration form, and read and sign registration and refund policies.

» Pay tuition fees. Following the financial plan that you submitted at the time of application, a New Image educational advisor will assist you with final details to complete your payment.

» Read and sign the New Image Student Policies and Procedures booklet.

YOU ARE NOW ONE STEP CLOSER TO ACHIEVING YOUR DREAM. WELCOME TO NEW IMAGE!
