

ACTING 101
DISTANCE DELIVERY | CANADIAN STUDENTSBRIEF PROGRAM
DESCRIPTION

This Program is designed to provide acting training based on the highest industry standards. This means the Student will be prepared to act professionally by doing scene study (read, write and research) including an in-depth analysis of plays, playwrights, characters and notable actors and directors that have made the plays famous. The program provides voice training, focusing on vocal power and projection, excellent diction and elocution. Also, acting movement and improvisation fundamentals are part of the training so students are able to go deeper in their emotional, physical and text work. This Program prepares the student with a comprehensive training, not only in performance but the skills required to be successful.
